

Danish Hearts

Danish hearts are traditionally made to decorate Christmas trees but can also be used to share notes or small gifts. After you complete your hearts, personalize them by adding a note, candy, or a gift.

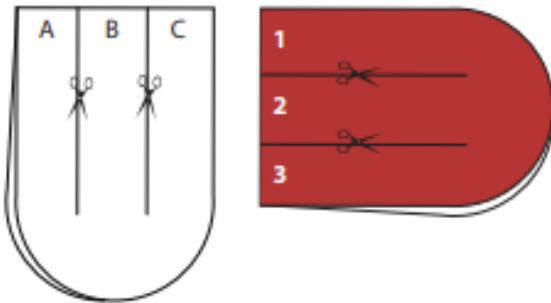

Included:
Danish Heart Templates
to make three hearts

You'll Need:

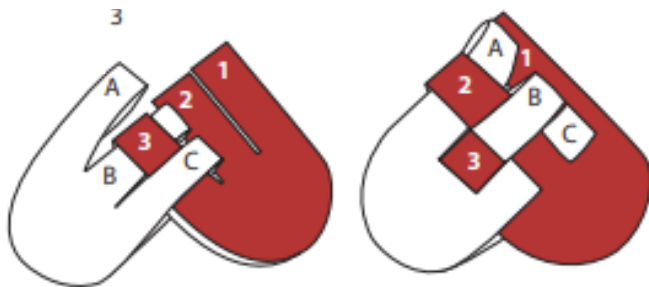

- Scissors
- Tape (optional)

Directions:

Cut out two templates. They should be different colors.
Fold your templates in half. Cut along the inside lines.

Weave your templates together, alternating over and under (see picture below).

Optional: Take an additional strip of paper and tape inside to create a handle and turn your heart into a basket.
